

Call for Section Editors at ImmunoHorizons

ImmunoHorizons (IH), a fully peer-reviewed, open-access journal published by The American Association of Immunologists (AAI), is seeking experienced immunologists to join the editorial board as Section Editors. IH is dedicated to advancing immunology through the publication of high-quality articles across all areas of the field.

Role and Term

Section Editors play a vital role in maintaining IH's standards, ensuring a rigorous, timely, and constructive review process. Appointments are for a 5-year term, during which Section Editors will:

- Oversee the review process for manuscripts within their areas of expertise
- Recommend reviewers and provide expert editorial guidance
- Contribute to shaping IH's editorial direction and strategy
- Receive a stipend for their service

As global ambassadors for ImmunoHorizons and AAI, Section Editors will actively engage with leading authors to attract high-impact research to the journal.

Ideal Candidates

We seek candidates with:

- A strong record of research and publication in immunology
- Active AAI membership (or willingness to join) in good standing throughout the term
- Extensive peer-review experience
- Demonstrated leadership and service in the scientific community

This position offers an excellent opportunity to shape the future of immunology research and contribute to a community-focused journal committed to quality and accessibility. International candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

How to Apply

Interested candidates are invited to submit:

- A curriculum vitae
- A brief letter outlining your interest and qualifications

Applications will be accepted through March 31, 2025, for a term that will begin on June 1, 2025. Please email application materials to InfoIH@aai.org.
